President's Message

It is already October, and we are approaching the time when CWRTTO officers are to be selected to lead us through 2016. Connie will have some forms prepared for members to suggest names of potential officers, to be voted on at the December meeting. Please take a blank form, name your nominee (and add your own name as nominee or Volunteer if you wish), and drop the form in the basket provided.

Please plan to inviting some friends to be your guests at the December meeting, as many of them should become new members. New, and younger, members are needed to reinvigorate the organization.

It is an honor to serve in an office of the Civil War Roundtable of the Ozarks, and I appreciate the opportunity to serve during 2015. This organization has existed for about 50 years. It provides insights into the history of the Great War between the States through its interesting programs, and the social life within the group adds richness to our lives, as well.

I look forward to seeing all of you on Wed., October 14.

O.K. Armstrong

CWRT President

Civil War Round Table of the Ozarks
Minutes of the meeting of September 9th, 2015

Meeting called to order by President O.K. Armstrong.

The invocation was given by Gerard Hennessy followed by Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Several visitors were recognized.

Minutes of the last minutes were approved.

The Treasurer's report was given by Kay Martin.

Ted Hillmer reported on the activities at Wilson's Creek National Battlefield.

The Wilson's Creek calendar for 2016 will feature the new exhibits recently installed at the Wilson's Creek Visitor Center.

He also announced the third annual Bloody Hill run to be held at Wilson's Creek on Sept. 19 with the proceeds going to support the Wilson's Creek Foundation education programs.

Membership report was given by Jim Scaminaci.

A fund raising report was given by Dori Scaminaci. $607 has been raised so far on the quilt. The drawing will be held at the November CWRTO meeting. Any members who have tickets and money to turn in need to bring them to the meeting or turn them in to Jim or Dori.

Dr. Piston reported on the book raffle.

Connie Langum mentioned the nomination sheet in the Buck and Ball to be turned in at the October meeting if possible. She then introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Robert Lull, speaking on "James Williams - Civil War General and Indian Fighter. James M. Williams was the leader of the 1st Kansas Colored Volunteer Infantry and the 8th U.S. Calvary. His presentation was both interesting and educational for those of us who are lacking in information about the battles in the Western Theater of the Civil War.

Meeting adjourned by President Armstrong.

Presentations for 2015

November—Tom Rafiner; “Cinders and Silence—A Chronicle of Missouri’s Burnt District 1854-1870”

December—Annual Christmas dinner and Civil War trivia
