President's Message

It is good to report that the CWRTO is well and healthy, and that our membership is in acceptable shape. This fall season would be a great time to invite others to our meetings, as Connie continues to supply excellent programs each month, and this generates interest in the Civil War, and causes new members to join our Roundtable. We especially need younger people to join, so be conscious of anyone "under 50".

The December banquet is just around the corner, so we should all count on attending, and by all means bring our spouses and young people. The Buck and Ball will keep you informed as plans develop.

Please be aware that election of Roundtable officers is coming up soon. Begin considering being elected to one of the offices and to serving for a year or more, or whom you would like to see elected to the office.
