President's Message

The CWRTO keeps on enjoying outstanding programs, excellent refreshments, and memorable dinners. Program Chairman Connie Langum has lined up great programs for our monthly meetings, and this adds to our continued interest in exploring the unending details of the War Between the States.

The Fourth of July is here again, and we celebrate the birth of our nation with appropriate fireworks and patriotic displays. We should contemplate the blessings of living in a nation where the Constitution, with its Bill of Rights, assures us the freedom to speak and assemble peaceably, and live in Liberty. Our Round Table celebrates President Lincoln, who preserved the Union and brought freedom to everyone.

All of us will be interested in seeing the new displays of the Civil War artifacts acquired by Wilson's Creek National Battlefield from Dr. Tom Sweeney some years ago. Superintendent Ted Hillmer will comment on this and other improvements at the battlefield during his report at our Wednesday night meeting.

Have a Happy Fourth of July, and I'll see you at the Round Table, 6:30 p.m., July 8th!!

Meeting Continuously
Since 1960

Civil War Round Table of the Ozarks
Minutes of the meeting of June 10th, 2015

Meeting called to order by President O.K. Armstrong

The invocation was given Stubby Kyle; followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Several visitors were recognized.

Ted Hillmer reported on the availability of the General Sweeney's Museum exhibits this month. He also reported on an August 9 "Thank you" program for the Wilson's Creek National Battlefield Foundation.

Jim Scaminaci reported that we now have 84 members and welcomed our new member Jack Hadsall. He also discussed how the quilt raffle was going.

Dan Cunningham discussed fundraising.

Dr. Piston reported on the books for the book raffle.

Stubby Kyle talked about a program to honor veterans to be held June 28 at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. at 2nd Baptist Church in Springfield.

The program for the evening consisted of different members sharing items related to their Civil War ancestors. Many interesting presentations were shared.

Meeting adjourned by President O.K. Armstrong.
